

House Resolution No. 1943

Whereas, the annual St. Louis Earth Day Festival will be held Sunday, April 27, 2003, on and around the Muny grounds in Forest Park; and

Whereas, "Clean Air", "Clean Water", "Healthy Land", and "Healthy Self" festival areas will highlight this year's theme, while an "Art Village" will provide opportunities for creative expression and an intergenerational performance arts area will feature both a children's performance troupe stage and an elders' storytelling theatre; and

Whereas, St. Louis held its first Earth Day festival in 1989, since which time St. Louis Earth Day has adopted the slogan "We are all in this together", and a mission to foster environmental appreciation through celebration, education, and stewardship with an emphasis on promoting the observance of the Earth Day Holiday by harnessing the power of collaboration:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, unanimously join in extending our most hearty congratulations to all those dedicated individuals who support and participate in the St. Louis Earth Day Festival; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for presentation during the annual St. Louis Earth Day Festival.
